COBWEBS

"There are artists who create with tools all of their own

*(precisely made
with secret skills
that we will never know).*

They work in utter silence (and they always work alone.)

*All through the night
as they work on,
their masterpieces form.*

*But when, by morning
all are hung
in galleries outdoors,*

*In fine displays (admission free),
why do we pass them by*

*And miss our chance to pause awhile
and savor artistry?*
