Nadine McLaughlin “Double Visions”

A poet, illustrator, and photographer whose photo art has been exhibited extensively in the High Peaks area of the Adirondacks, Nadine is the author of several books of poetry, including Life TIMES.... and quiet epiphanies; SUNRISE, SUNSET ... poetry just for the joy of it; and SONG for the ADIRONDACKS.

Nadine writes from the heart, with eloquence and warmth. Her poetry captures special moments and places; of everyday times and everyday events and draws the reader in with its simplicity and universal appeal. In this exhibit, her poetry is illustrated with her own original drawings and art photographs, thus evoking the title "Double Visions" for this special display.

Three of her poems, SUNRISE, DAY, and SUNSET were the inspiration and became lyrics for an original suite of music set by composer Valerie Showers-Crescenz that was chosen as a winner at the Freudig Singers Best-Composer of the Year Awards in Buffalo, NY, where it was premiered and performed by the full chorus at their Annual Awards Concert.
